A practical workshop presented by Fiona Gillam

This introductory/update session will cover essential knowledge for all solicitors, from newly qualified to senior managers. The SRA Code of Conduct underpins everything that solicitors do: this course will highlight your personal compliance obligations under the Code of Conduct, discuss examples of what this might look like in practice and build up your “compliance confidence”.

Participants can expect a fast-paced, informative session, with some workshop-style discussion, examples and practical tips. The content is directly relevant to the Ethics, Professionalism and Judgement requirement of SRA’s Statement of Solicitor Competence (March 2015).

Speaker’s Biography:

Fiona Gillam (BA Hons) qualified as a Solicitor in 1988 and has spent over 20 years in private practice specialising in both residential and commercial conveyancing, developing a particular interest in unregistered titles and complex leasehold transactions. Now non-practising, she runs her own risk and compliance consultancy, is a Lexcel Assessor and Consultant and writes and edits legal training materials on compliance issues. She is a passionate believer in clear, jargon-free communication.
