

HARROGATE MEDICAL SOCIETY
(Instituted 1884)

ANNUAL COMBINED MEETING

THURSDAY 16 FEBRUARY 2017

The President of HMS, Dr Carl Gray, and Committee invite you and your personal guest(s) to the annual meeting between Harrogate Medical Society, Harrogate and District Law Society and local clergy.

Speaker : Prof. PAUL MARKS BA LLM MD FRCS MFFLM
(HM Coroner for Kingston upon Hull and East Riding of Yorkshire)

Prof. Marks will speak on issues related to postponing/avoiding death and the ethics of the cryogenic preservation of dead persons' bodies.

Venue : Harrogate Golf Club, Forest Lane Head, Harrogate, HG2 7TF

Time : 7 for 7.30 pm,

Cost : £17/20 per person.

The evening will start with a meal (menu attached) and there is a bar available should you want soft drinks, wine or beer.

Paul Marks was born in London and educated at Chigwell School in Essex. He qualified in London in 1980 and trained in neurosurgery in London and Cambridge. He became Visiting Fellow at the Mayo Clinic Minnesota in 1989 having won two travelling scholarships to study there. Following this, he was appointed Consultant Neurosurgeon and Reader in Surgery at the University of Auckland, New Zealand.

He returned to England in 1992 as Consultant Neurosurgeon at Leeds General Infirmary and in 1994 was elected Hunterian professor of the Royal College of Surgeons of England for his research into pituitary tumours.

His clinical interests are spinal surgery, pituitary disease as well as surgery of brain tumours and trigeminal neuralgia. He also has a major interest in medico-legal practice and studied law at Cardiff law School. His expertise includes coronial law, legal education for medical practitioners and end of life issues. Prior to his current appointment, Paul served as Acting HM Coroner for Bradford, Deputy HM Coroner for West Yorkshire and Assistant Deputy HM Coroner for York.

Paul has written over 80 publications on neurological and related topics, including forensic pathology and is Series Editor/Course Director for 'Legal Aspects of Surgical Practice'.
